From Monday October 14. to Thursday October 17. 1706.

Lisbon, October 15. N. S.

A Ship arrived here lately from Genoa, with the welcome News of the great Victory obtained by the Confederate Forces, under the Command of the Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene, over the French Army commanded by the Duke of Orleans near Turin, and of the raising the Siege of that Place; which has been confirmed by Letters we have since received from England, and has occasioned an universal Joy. The Body of Troops commanded by the Viscount de Fonte Arcada continues encamped near Ciudad-Rodrigo.

Rome, Sept. 25. The Pope has referred to a Congregation of Cardinals the Matters in Dispute concerning the Election of a Bishop of Munster, which meets frequently to consult upon them. Cardinal Fieschi is upon his departure hence to take possession of his Archbishoprick of Genoa, and Cardinal Badoer for his Bishoprick of Brescia. Signior Anguisciola is appointed to be the Pope's Nuntio at Venice, and will be going hence in few Days; as will likewise Signior Stampa, who is lately named to be Vice-Legate at Ravenna.

Genoa, September 25. The Dutchess and Dutchess Dowager of Savoy embarked lately here on one of the Gallies of this State, which carried them to Oneglia; from whence their Royal Highnesses proceeded to Turin.

Venice, Octob. 2. N. S. Several Expresses arrived here the 27th past, with the News of the Duke of Savoy's and Prince Eugene's having taken possession of Milan; and this Morning we received an Account from Brescia, That Prince Eugene being marched from thence to Picighittone, has also taken that Place; and the Count de Medavi has thereupon withdrawn his Troops from Pavia and Cremona. There is Advice also, That a Detachment of the Confederate Troops being come before Lodi, that Town and Castle surrendred to them: So that now the whole Dutchy of Milan is reduced. The French and Spanish Officers at Castiglione delle Stivere have sent away their Bagage to Mantua; whence it is conjectured, they design to abandon Castiglione. The Dutchess of Bavaria intends to be going from hence in few Days to Florence, and after a short stay there to embark at Leghorne on board one of the Great Duke's Gallies, which will carry her to Marseilles, from whence she will proceed on her Journey to the French Court.

Falmouth, October 12. The Nostra Seignora de Begona of Bilboa, laden with Wool and Iron, and bound for Rotterdam, was put in here the 8th Instant by contrary Winds. The same Day came in 4 Dutch Vessels bound for Bourdeaux, and the next Day 2 more for the same Place. Yesterday sailed hence the Neptune Galley, George Sowter Master, of and from Dover, bound for Oporto; the Swift, William Bashly Master; the Neptune, John Bigford Master; and the Rumney, - - - - Fairfax Master; all belonging to London, and bound to the Streights. That Day also came in the Russell Galley, John Christmass Master, and the Jacob Galley, John Clarver Master, both from London. This Day sailed the Expedition Packet-Boat, commanded by Captain Clyes, with two Mails for Lisbon.

Dartmouth, October 12. Yesterday the Griffin, a Dutch Privateer, sailed hence to cruise. This Day sailed another Dutch Privateer belonging to Middlebourg, Captain Peter Garretson Commander, with a French Prize lately taken by another Dutch Privateer; and the Hooker Galley of London, Captain Tillet Commander, homeward bound.

Plimouth, October 13. The 10th Instant Her Majesty's Ship the Assurance came in here from the Eastward. The same Day sailed hence the Ridge and Russell Gallies, bound for Leghorne; the John Galley for Figuera; the Jacob Galley for Falmouth and Leghorne; and 12 Dutch Ships bound for Bourdeaux, and other Ports in France. The 11th sailed 4 Dutch Ships more, bound thither. Yesterday sailed Her Majesty's Ships the Aldborough and Valeur to the Westward; the Nostra Seignora de Bon Huora of Leghorne, homeward bound; and a Merchant-man from Bilboa, bound for London. The same Day came in Her Majesty's Ship the Nonsuch from Torbay; and the Swallow of Looe from Guernsey, laden with Salt for this Place.

Bristol, October 14. The 10th Instant sailed out of King-Road Her Majesty's Ship the Advice Prize, and under her Convoy the Queen Anne of London, Joseph Powis Commander, homeward bound from Jamaica; the Prince, the Transport and the Hamouze Store-ships, bound for the Dock at Plimouth; and the Adventure for Rotterdam. The same Tide sailed the Coulson Galley, and Happy Return, both bound for Guinea; the York for New-York; the St. Jacob of Stockholm for Bourdeaux; the Matthias of Dram, homeward bound; and several small Vessels for Ireland. The 12th sailed the St. Peter and the Margaret, both of Dram in Norway, and homeward bound; the Slego Merchant, bound for Dublin; and the Dungannon for Scotland. This Day arrived here the George of this Place, Richard Arding Commander, from Zant.

Portsmouth, October 15. Yesterday in the Afternoon a Dutch Man of War and 4 Privateers came to St. Hellens, with about 6 Prizes they have lately taken, and are carrying home.
